

STUDENT-LED RESTORATIVE PRACTICES TRAINING

Mount Vernon City Schools

300 Newark Road,
Mount Vernon, OH 43050

November 4 - 6, 2026

Student-Led Restorative Practices (SLRP)

Offers schools a transformative way to strengthen connection and culture by putting young people at the center of community-building and conflict resolution. Instead of relying on compliance-based discipline, SLRP empowers students to practice empathy, communication, and leadership as they repair harm and rebuild trust. The result is students learning to care for one another, solve problems collaboratively, and shape the climate of their schools. These are the same skills emphasized in Portrait of a Graduate frameworks, and this three-day training provides students with authentic, community-rooted opportunities to develop them. This is the authentic context and peer-based practice to hone these skills.

Key Elements of the Training

Who: The training is for secondary students (grades 9-12)

Purpose: To develop the skills and dispositions for leading community building and conflict resolution in their schools

Cost: $1500 for team of 8-10 students. There will be a hard cap on the number of students, which will be dependent on the number of student leaders there are. First registered/paid, first served
